DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. New corrected drawings are required in this application because lines, letters, and numbers are not uniformly thick and well defined, clean, durable, and black. Applicant is advised to employ the services of a competent patent draftsman outside the Office, as the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office no longer prepares new drawings. The corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The requirement for corrected drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 4, 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claims 4, 10 recite the limitation "every new message" in line 2. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

4. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

Art Unit: 2132

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

5. Claims 1, 5-8, 11-13, 17-20, 24-33 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Novoa, U.S. Patent No. 6,223,284. Referring to claims 1, 8, 13, 31, 32, Novoa discloses a security management system for a computer and remote ROM wherein a user uses a computer system (client application) to access a ROM drive (Col. 2, lines 57-61, service processor, hardware component information). To access the ROM in administrator mode the user is prompted to input an administrator password (challenge, response), and administrator access is granted upon verification of the password (Col. 3, lines 9-25).

Referring to claim 5-7, 11, 12, 17-20, 24-30, 33, Novoa discloses that the ROM contains a one-way hash of the ROM image (Col. 9, line 62- Col. 10, line 2, challenge string, password).

6. Claims 1-4, 6, 8-10, 12-16, 19-23, 26, 31, 32 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Dustan, U.S. Patent No. 5,884,312. Referring to claims 1-3, 6, 8, 9, 12-15, 19-22, 26, 31, 32, Dustan discloses a system for securely accessing network information wherein a user (client application) requests network information (service processor, hardware component information) and receives a logon menu (challenge)(Col. 3, lines 11-14). The user communicates the input data (response) to the network to be authenticated at a network database. The logon information contains a session identification number that is stored at the database and the client. Once the login information and the session identification number has been verified the requested information is delivered to the client (Col. 3, lines 15-42).

Referring to claims 4, 10, 16, 23, Dustan discloses that the logon information contains an incrementable value that is incremented upon a logon failure. After incrementation a decision step follows that compares the increment value to a preset threshold. If the value is equal to that threshold the user's account number is disabled in the user table and an error message is generated and presented to the client (application)(Col. 17, lines 55-67).
